

1. Find a dataset that includes a time series (e.g. end of day stock prices for several instruments).
2. Use window functions to calculate year to date and six day moving averages.
3. Present your code in a three to five minute presentation.